Version 416: 2026, Sunday, October 18th at 10:45 pm NPST (2026, Sunday, October 18th at 11:45 pm PST)

NPST – New Pacific Standard Time: same as PST (Pacific Standard Time) but without daylight savings time.

2026, August 27th:

Approximately 16 and a half hours after this update, will mark the 1 year anniversary of the arrival in Cannon Beach in 2025. Version 365 will be created tomorrow, making this document 1 year old.

Work in progress
A log of the adventures of Sean Patrick Myrick by location

~~Note: Right now, daily updates are only being done so that I can keep the document going, so I don't abandon it/forget about it. An update with new content will eventually be made.~~

Coming soon: More places in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Alaska States to be added (many were found that I have been to, but that haven't been listed)

Future ideas:

- Add administrative units
- Add flags
- Add Coat of Arms (CoA)
- Add coordinates

TODO

- ~~Sort the complete listing section~~

- Various places to add (WIP)
  - Washington State cities
    - More coming soon
  - Oregon State cities
    - More coming soon
  - Idaho State cities
    - More coming soon
- Find a specific location you have been to that contained a silver mine, hot springs, and abandoned prison museum; once found, list it, and document its sites.
- Add SVG flags for countries, states, counties, cities, towns, and other settlements
- I am being told that there are a lot more than 52 total settlements I have visited in my lifetime, due to all of the villages, towns, and cities on the way to several locations (such as Cannon Beach, Oregon) a lot of entries will need to be added in he future.
- There will soon be more revisions to this document than there have been total settlements I have gone to – 2025, October 9th
- Make a separate listing for administrative divisions (states, districts, counties, provinces, etc.)
- There are now just as many total settlements I have been to, as there are revisions to this document (as of 2025, Saturday, October 17th, version 51)

Extra resources

[Physical, paper copy] DELORME – Washington Atlas & Gazetteer (2001, 25 year anniversary edition)

Temporary remix (Travel log × WorldDB)

Combining the two, until this is a separate document.

I have recently reunified my WorldDB folder, and have been working on putting the scattered pieces back together, and improving on it. Unification of systems has been a major theme for me this year.

It is still a major work in progress. Here is what I have so far:

My fictional country: emoteland

Sounds like remoteland, but in actually, it means land of emotes (emotions) came up with it on 2026, July 19th it is to be used for an example in psychology.

National Flag of Emoteland

Vexillological description: A purple banner charged with a Plutchik wheel:

Obverse side: None (just solid purple)

Coat of Arms of Emoteland

Note: A language-neutral version is desired.

Here are the current states (provinces)

States of Emoteland

State of Depression

State of Anxiety

State of Happiness

State of Calm

State of Panic

State of Fear

State of Mind (capital)

Administrative reform 2026, July 21st

Regions of Emoteland (8)

1) Region-of-Aggressiveness
2) Region-of-Awe
3) Region-of-Contempt
4) Region-of-Disapproval
5) Region-of-Love
6) Region-of-Optimism
7) Region-of-Remorse
8) Region-of-Submission

States of Emoteland (30)

1. State-of-Acceptance
2. State-of-Admiration
3. State-of-Amazement
4. State-of-Annoyance
5. State-of-Anticipation
6. State-of-Anxiety
7. State-of-Apprehension
8. State-of-Boredom
9. State-of-Calm
10. State-of-Depression
11. State-of-Disgust
12. State-of-Distraction
13. State-of-Ecstasy
14. State-of-Fear
15. State-of-Grief
16. State-of-Happiness
17. State-of-Interest
18. State-of-Joy

19. State-of-Loathing
20. State-of-Mind
21. State-of-Optimism
22. State-of-Panic
23. State-of-Pensiveness
24. State-of-Rage
25. State-of-Sadness
26. State-of-Serenity
27. State-of-Surprise
28. State-of-Terror
29. State-of-Trust
30. State-of-Vigilance

A psychology tool.

PROBLEMS WITH THE IDEA

How does one situate themselves in multiple states at the same time? Is it a family? (one person per state, but one family across several states) Is it electronic? Is every state have a 4 or 5 corner section?

Starting to look at the possibility that there might be a category I haven't discovered yet.

The Islamic Emirate of Japan was a mistake I stumbled across after reading about an event from yesterday, I was looking for Islamic Republic of Japan, and my public statement criticizing the event was problematic for this reason, as I misquoted a misquote.

So embarrassing how I misquoted a misquote

Even more embarrassing that [ REDACTED ]

To be fair, I am frequently working with a lot of former countries, many of them Islamic countries. Mistakes also happen sometimes

Let’s see how this plays out by tomorrow

The entry was redacted, because it was too political, even for this project. I have limits on how political I can be on some projects.

If a map is to be used for representation, it is best to use the one that is at the earliest point of the country, or its greatest extent. When neither are available, use what is there. The qualifications for greatest extent usage is currently undefined. Sometimes, the greatest extent is also the earliest point. Just use this one. Sometimes, if a different style map exists, use it instead.

I did 60 today to make up for not reaching 40 yesterday, and because entries were shorter, and I wanted to make progress. It got a little complex in the last package of 20. The process took about an hour overall.

Dynasty 7 was skipped, as the resource didn't contain any unique images, and I didn't feel like going further right now.

Update: I came to my own conclusion, and assumed the seventh dynasty was real, and that the first set of kings on the eighth dynasty belong to the seventh dynasty. This is being done to make this feel more complete. There is a lot of mystery by scholars regarding if the 7th Dynasty of Egypt was fictitious or real. It may not be real. I am not a professional Egyptian scholar or historian, so I can't say.

There were far fewer flags and maps than normal today, because the country I worked with was extremely old (over 2900 years old)

I failed today, forgetting about this project until it was too late, then running out of tiem. I did a major system repair today, which slowed me down by hours. I am hoping I can recover work on this project, and that it doesn't become too low of a priority, the past 2 days have proven that it is starting to fall in favor.

Notes main

2026, July 7th: I have been aware that many of the entries I have listed are not independent former countries, but administrative divisions of former countries. They are to be merged in the future.

I was going to do 40 today to make up for 2 days ago, but I couldn't allocate time to it. Additionally, there is going to be a pause on the development of this project (but not the travel log itself) from 2026, Friday, September 4th to 2026, Monday, September 7th. I will be taking a short vacation, this was a project deemed less important that needed to be paused. I still have other work to do during vacation, I can't get a true vacation. I am going to try and limit how much I need to do.

To catch up, I will need to do 20 extra entries (to make up for Wednesday) and 80 entries for the vacation (100 entries) to comfortably catch up, I should do 40 entries for 5 days. I should not take on more than 40 entries per day.

NOTES

I am not progressing as fast as I would like, as a lot of these South and East Asian historical countries go by a lot of different names (between 1 and 9 different names for each country) and so many of them existed over just the past 1000 years (let alone the entire time period) and I don't want to exceed 20 entries per day. It is saving me time, but progress is disappointingly slow. I am now up to a total of 1800 entries (not all of which are former territorial units)

NOTES

Some duplicates are listed as so, even though they are also listed as new entries for today. This is because they pop up more than once.

To prevent Firefox from popping up the most recently downloaded file each time I did a download, I started a set of very large downloads before starting. This greatly reduced the amount of time needed, but can't be done every day. There is likely a configuration option to fix this, but I don't have the time to find it yet, and a Firefox update can always bring it back (it wasn't even a thing 2 years ago)

NOTES

The former countries project now has more entries than a similar (ongoing) predecessor project (MOSS, which is a streaming service, which currently has 1832 entries. This project now has 1840 entries)

General rules

1. The list of former countries frequently lists unrecognized countries/states, quasi-states, rump states, short-lived territories, and other territories of questionable legal standing. The goal is to be exhaustive. Inclusion on this list does not indicate a recognition of sovereignty of legitimacy.
2. This page is considered Not Safe For Work (NSFW) and also may be illegal in countries that ban the usage of Fascist (Nazi, Fascist Italy) Extremist, and Communist symbols, due to the uncensored usage of flags for Nazi Germany, the German Empire and its client states, Islamic State, Afghanistan, the Soviet Union, and more. This project is for historical and educational purposes only. I condemn most of the countries I am listing, but written history should not be erased or altered. I am just preserving what has already happened. In some extreme contexts/cases, some flags (such as the flag of the Kingdom of Ireland) may be considered illegal due to its sexuality, due to the flag containing human female breasts.

3. Notice: Do not use the 2021 Afghanistan flag (Taliban flag) to represent Afghanistan. Continue to use the Republic of Afghanistan flag.
4. Do not include widely unrecognized countries (such as Abkhazia, Northern Cyprus, and South Ossetia) in the current countries listing, with the exceptions of Israel, Kosovo, Palestine, Republic of China, Tibet, and Western Sahara
5. Although tempting, do not merge the Peoples Republic of China (Occupied China) directory into the Republic of China directory.
6. Hong Kong and Macau are considered separate countries.
7. Future ToDo: Move the British Colombia directory into the Canada directory.
8. The question of merging the French-Polynesia directory into the France directory is currently being debated.
9. No flags will represent Antarctic claims, only pictures of the map with the claim will be used for FolderArt here.
10. Micronations are not to be classified as fictional countries.
11. The categories

    Earth

    Current countries

    Former countries

    Future

    Micronations

    Regions

    Groupings

    Core

    Space

    Galaxies

    Planets

    Heraldry

    Vexillology

    Fictional countries
12. The main categories (Earth)

    Current countries

Former countries

Regions

Groupings

Micronations

Fictional countries

13. Starting to look at the possibility that there might be a category I haven't discovered yet.
14. The Islamic Emirate of Japan was a mistake I stumbled across after reading about an event from yesterday, I was looking for Islamic Republic of Japan, and my public statement criticizing the event was problematic for this reason, as I misquoted a misquote.

    So embarrassing how I misquoted a misquote

    Even more embarrassing that [ REDACTED ]

    To be fair, I am frequently working with a lot of former countries, many of them Islamic countries. Mistakes also happen sometimes

    Let’s see how this plays out by tomorrow

    The entry was redacted, because it was too political, even for this project. I have limits on how political I can be on some projects.
15. Do not include your Micronation in the micronations list, as the name and constitution are currently private.
16. Folders without FolderArt break the illusion.
17. If a map is to be used for representation, it is best to use the one that is at the earliest point of the country, or its greatest extent.
    1. When neither are available, use what is there.
    2. The qualifications for greatest extent usage is currently undefined. Sometimes, the greatest extent is also the earliest point. Just use this one.
    3. Sometimes, if a different style map exists, use it instead.
18. The flag of Hong Kong (in the folderArt system) has been replaced with the black Bauhinia with wilted pedals version) and the flag of Macau is using the Portuguese version with only the text Macau. This is being done to represent that these territories are not recognized as part of Occupied China (otherwise known as the Peoples Republic of China)
    1. I will draw some exceptions for this rule. To keep familiarity and accuracy, these will be the only 2 flags I will modify. Right now, I could replace the flag of Germany with the flag of Nazi Germany, but this would be completely inappropriate, and also inaccurate. Flags will not be changed, unless their government changes them, and unless these changes are internationally recognized (thus why I don't use the white Taliban flag to represent Afghanistan) only flags of unrecognized countries can be changed by choice.

NOTES

To give myself more time to prepare for an upcoming trip, I have done an extra set of entries today, so that I can have more time tomorrow. Work on this project will resume on 2026, September 8th.

2026, September 3rd

I am taking a 5 day break from this project. I am already starting to really miss it.

2026, September 4th

Day 2 of 5 of my break. I am not missing it as strongly today, my day has been preoccupied with other things.

Notes from 2026, September 5th

Day 3 of 5 of my break. I am not missing it as strongly today, my day has been preoccupied with other things. I have brought back the older style of writing headings for notes (see the line above this paragraph, and compare it with yesterday)

Notes from 2026, September 6th

Day 4 of 5 of my break. I return home tomorrow, but will not resume until Tuesday. My MOSS (offline streaming service) project suddenly gained an upperhand in the number of entries, as a new method was found, and at least 160 new entries will be created rapidly, so I hope to regain this projects majority in entries over time, and keep it at a holding point. I am also having difficulty keeping my tab count down, resuming this project will allow me to start clearing tabs again (about a thousand or more tabs are dedicated to the queue for this project)

Notes from 2026, September 7th

Day 5 of 5 of my break. I returned home today, but did not resume work on this project. That will happen tomorrow. MOSS has now overtaken this project, reaching a total of 1901 entries today, compared to this projects 1880.

Notes

I now plan to take some time off on the weekends. To do this, I have to increase my workload between Monday and Friday. Daily required entries for WorldDB has increased from 20 to 30. MOSS still overpowers this project (1925 to 1910) and I now intend to try and keep it this way for close to a week.

NOTES

Macau was added, I somehow forgot it

Flag changes:

The flag of Hong Kong (in the folderArt system) has been replaced with the black Bauhinia with wilted pedals version) and the flag of Macau is using the Portuguese version with only the text Macau. This is being done to represent that these territories are not recognized as part of Occupied China (otherwise known as the Peoples Republic of China)

I will draw some exceptions for this rule. To keep familiarity and accuracy, these will be the only 2 flags I will modify. Right now, I could replace the flag of Germany with the flag of Nazi Germany, but this would be completely inappropriate, and also inaccurate. Flags will not be changed, unless their government changes them, and unless these changes are internationally recognized (thus why I don't use the white Taliban flag to represent Afghanistan) only flags of unrecognized countries can be changed by choice.

I hope to keep the WorldDB-MOSS ratio in MOSS favor for the remainder of the week. A recent project is now past halfway done. Current ratio: 1940 (WorldDB) to 1962 (MOSS)

NOTES

There were a lot of duplicates today. The MOSS-WorldDB majority may fade next week, the newest sub-project received more ideas, and is now expected to continue until at least 2026, September 19th. The current ratio is 2000 (WorldDB) to 2005 (MOSS)

I may have made a critical mistake today. When working with entries in another folder, I accidentally moved my pictures folder to my downloads folder. I quickly reverted the change. I don't see any missing icons so far, I have reloaded several times, but I haven't closed my file manager yet. I am really scared that I may have destroyed FolderArt on over 5,000 different folders. This also highlights the need for FolderArtist to be a functional program.

I will be having a break for the weekend from this project, starting tomorrow, and ending on September 14th, when the project will resume.

WorldDB/Former countries reached a total of 2,000 entries today.

Notes from 2026, September 12th

The pictures folder survived with all folder art intact. As part of a weekend break from this project, no new entries were added, although I did rename 1 entry

New-Zealand -> Aotearoa-New-Zealand

Aotearoa is the native name for New Zealand. To make this more appropriate, I put it first, and put New Zealand second, including both names.

WorldDB to MOSS Ratio: 2000-2025

Notes from 2026, September 13th

I did not work with the WorldDB project. My day was also busy, and I ended up forgetting to do graphic design work, so the ratio did not change.

I returned to both projects today, 30 new entries were created today on WorldDB, while 21 new entries were created on MOSS. The WorldDB-MOSS ratio is now 2030-2056. It will most likely result in WorldDB gaining a higher count by Wednesday or Thursday.

NOTES

Today was a very difficult day for me. I lost roughly 8 hours of development time today, due to issues from poor sleep, and depression. As it got later in the night, I decided that 30 entries was not feasible today, and I started to question why this rule of having a minimum of 30 entries per day has become so rigid. I was considering cutting it down to 10 for today, and doing 10 each day for the rest of the week, to get the count for the week to 90, but ultimately, I axed it, as there was no way I could do this today. Entries may or may not be reduced during the next 2 days. It is extremely rare for the decision to halt so much work to be made, as typically (this year) once I weaken a project for one day, it can become out of control, and once it is out of control, it can be almost impossible to regain control of in a reasonable timeframe.

Also, the WorldDB-MOSS ratio is now 2060-2096. MOSS didn't grow as much today, as I had to pause the subproject within that project as well. 4 entries were gained through other means.

I came back to this project after a 2 day pause. The 40 entries I missed are not going to be made up this week. I also added 5 galaxies today to the listing.

Notes from 2026, September 25th

This project was skipped today, and won't return until at least 2026, Monday, September 28th. I have a lot of things I am trying to catch up on control this week, things have been hard. This project had to be held off for now.

Notes from 2026, September 26th

WorldDB work has paused for the weekend, but will pick up next week, starting Monday (first goal) or Tuesday (backup goal) my interest in galaxies exploded today (not imploded) and I now have plans to incorporate galaxies into WorldDB further. It is queued for after I get through my current former countries queue. It may start earlier.

Some planned locations include:

Hell

Fictional galaxies

Fictional universes

Universe

Omniverse

Multiverse

More galaxies are planned, I discovered close to 200 of them tonight. I also discovered an interesting software tool called SkyView, which maps out objects in space.

Returning after a long hiatus. 20 entries were created today in the former countries section, while 1 new entry was made on Earth, and 1 entry was made outside. England is considered a country, I never listed this, due to a research failure (which was discovered in full after reading about recent events, which pose the possibility of the United Kingdom breaking up, as the rest of Ireland, along with Scotland, and Wales are all wanting to leave right now) knowing about the 2026 Cardiff agreement for about a week, it wasn't until last night that I realized that England can be considered a separate country, and should be indexed. The Lugansk Peoples Republic was also added, as a spelling deviation of Luhansk Peoples Republic (both of which are not recognized entities, and they have been dissolved, so they are listed under Former Countries) Hell was added as a joke, since I added Heaven a while back, I might as well add Hell.

NOTES

Once again, European entries caused a proliferation of new entries in the queue. I considered doing 100 entries today, but ultimately decided against it.

MOSS did not grow today.

Notes 2026, October 16th

I ultimately cut work on this project today, due to a triad of issues: schedule issues, health issues, and focus issues. The number is now evened out, and I should return next Monday.

Germany is traditionally a country organized as a federal state. The dissolution of the Holy Roman Empire in 1806 and the Napoleonic Wars led to an interregnum of federalized control. But after Congress of Vienna in 1815, the German-speaking territories of the former Holy Roman Empire became allied in the German Confederation (1815–1866), a league of states with a shared army and some federal elements to regulate issues that affected multiple states.[1]:219 After the Austro-Prussian War, the Northern states joined into a federal state called the North German Confederation (1867–1870), led by Prussia.[1]:256 The Southern states joined the federal state in 1870/71, which was consequently renamed the German Empire (1871–1918). The state continued as the Weimar Republic (1919–1933).

Present-day Germany is a federal republic which combines the States of Germany.

Version 375 (2026, Tuesday, September 8th at 01:35 am PST)

I unexpectedly passed out tonight. I had been fighting for months to keep these 2 documents (travel log, and game center) within the original range (finish before 12:00 am) but my hand has been forced. I am hoping this to be a rare thing. I passed out unexpectedly for about an hour and a half. The criteria of 6:00 am being the start of the new day will just have to be used here as well. I am just glad I didn't go out any longer.

TODO:

Rejected scope expansion:

A listing of every city/town/village I know about

Reason: doesn't fit the purpose of this document, as these are not places I have been to.

New labels

Pass-through – This settlement was only passed through, and was not stopped in

Visited – This settlement was both passed through, and stopped in (visited)

Residency – This settlement has been passed through, stopped in (visited) and has also been a place of residence for at least 1 month

Snippet

Reading rotary club artist book, looking at all of the artwork

Reading the map of Washington

Trying to find Mercer Island

@VCM late said that there are only 3 places in Washington State that I haven't been to
